

Specialty Building Erector

Do you like a fast-paced environment? Do you like to travel? Do you want overtime pay?

Greystone Construction--a nationally-ranked pre-engineered building general contractor with a reach of 23 states and counting--has positions available for Specialty Building Erectors. We provide on-the-job training, everything you need to work safely with great pay, ample overtime each week, and all travel expenses are covered.

A typical projects last 1-2 weeks then you're off to the next challenge. You will work on steel erection, carpentry, tension membrane installation, foundation work, fork and boom lift operations and more.

Foreman opportunities are available.

Qualified candidates will have:

- Valid driver's license & reliable transportation
- High School diploma or GED
- Previous construction experience
- No fear of heights
- Willing to travel
- Safety conscious
- Strong work ethic, decisive, ambitious, with a commitment to quality and professional work.

Preferred:

- Completed OSHA -10, Forklift and Boom lift Safety Training
- Trained in First Aid ,CPR
- CDL

Greystone Construction provides a wide range of construction services and specialty products and has worked in 23 states to date. To fulfill our customer needs, we recruit individuals committed to performing quality work and working safely.

Interested and highly qualified candidates will call 612-916-5150 or email Bkreuser@greystoneconstruction.com. Females and minorities are encouraged to apply.

Equal Opportunity Employer /Contractor